GERMANS SUFFER HEAVY LOSS IN ALL-AMERICAN GAS ATTACK

Not a Single U. S. Casualty in Retaliatory Fire; Planes Drop 38 Bombs

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE, June 20.—The Germans suffered heavy casualties in yesterday morning's combined first all-American gas attack and bombardment, it was established through an enemy prisoner today.

The boches were just starting to invade the American lines when the gas containers fell in their midst, killing a great number and sending others fleeing.

After the deluge of gas subsided and the barrage died down, the Germans attempted to start their raid again but were stopped almost in their tracks by American artillery, machine gun and rifle fire.

I witnessed this first American gas projector attack from a front line trench. Every doughboy impatiently awaited the "zero hour," which had been set at 2:30. Promptly on the second the silence was broken by a terrific explosion from our trenches as several batteries of projectors, fired simultaneously by electricity, sent more than 1000 gas containers toward the German trenches in the Bois de Montmare.

(Montmare wood is opposite Flirey, in the Toul sector, and three miles northeast of Seicheprey.)

After the flash the walls of the departing projectiles died away and it very loud explosion was heard in the seemed almost a minute before a Hun trenches. Then we knew that certain specified German positions had been drenched with gas.

For several minutes an uncanny silence ensued. After this interval star-shell signals were sent up and the American artillery cut loose. This terrific barrage of gas shells and high explosives died down and again there was comparative quiet. The boches apparently were too astonished to reply.

The American artillery laid down another barrage and this time the Germans answered. The whole area became an inferno. Every village behind the American lines was subjected to heavy fire, mostly gas shells, but there was not a single American casualty. When the bombardment finally ceased a comparatively few Huns emerged from their trenches, but were swept back by a perfect deluge of shrapnel and bullets. This, we learned from a prisoner, was to have been a German retaliatory raid.

The projector attack, of course, was timed for a favorable wind.

The Germans were so excited they failed to take this into consideration. The Americans then boxed in the comparatively small area deluged by gas, preventing the Huns from fleeing to other parts of their lines and forcing them to stay and take it.

American aviators reported later in the day that gas clouds extended ten kilometers (more than six miles) behind the German forward lines.

Five American bombing planes which dropped 38 bombs on the railway station, yards and tracks at Conflans (twenty miles east of Verdun), doing heavy damage, returned safely Tuesday night despite an encounter with several enemy planes.

GOVERNMENT RAIDS THE WESTERN UNION

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The Government today arrested five Western Union messengers in Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, securing evidence to support a charge that the W. U. was operating in illegal competition with the post office and in violation of the postal law.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Raids were carried out today by the government on the Western Union offices at Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Washington and Boston to secure evidence regarding charges that the Western Union is operating in competition with the postoffice department by delivering "night letters" via train.

No Conference While Germans Are in France

American Labor Sends Patriotic Message to People of England and France

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—"American labor will never sit down to a conference with German labor while there is a single German soldier on the soil of Belgium or France."

That was the message the American labor mission delivered in England and France and as a result the proposed conference with German labor leaders was never held. E. O. McCormick, vice president of the Southern Pacific and a member of the labor mission, declared today on his return.

Beside McCormick, the mission consisted of James A. Wilson, of the patternmakers union; John P. Frey, of the moulders; Martin Ryan, of the railway employees, and William J. Johnson of the machinists.

The members of the mission visited General Pershing's headquarters in France, went to the front line and talked to the Americans who had just tangled with the boche at Seicheprey.

"I asked an officer if he thought the Germans would ever get those lads," said McCormick. "The Germans won't but the squirrels will," he said. "There're all nuts, all of them. When they came out of that fight at Seicheprey, where they took man jack of them sat down and re-sharpened his bayonet before he rolled over and went to sleep."

Oppose All Talk of Peace

CHICAGO, June 20.—A pre-war Socialist delegation composed of John Spargo, formerly executive member of the Socialist party; Louis Kohlin, editor of The New Appeal, formerly the Appeal to Reason; A. M. Simmons, a Socialist writer of Milwaukee, and Alexander Howatt of Pittsburgh, Kan., state member of the United Mine Workers of America, today is on its way to Europe. It will oppose any attempt of radicals of allied countries to talk peace with German Socialists at a conference called by the British labor party for June 28.

PRESIDENT MAY DELIVER LOAN ADDRESSES

McAdoo Ordered to Rest, Wilson May 'Substitute' For Him In Campaign

WASHINGTON, June 20.—President Wilson may "substitute" for Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in personal appeals before the people during the next Liberty Loan campaign.

The loan will be the first great test of the country's willingness to sacrifice "until it hurts." With at least $6,000,000,000 in treasury certificates to be absorbed by the loan, it was intimated today by treasury officials that the subscription to be asked may run to $7,000,000,000 or $8,000,000,000.

It now appears that Secretary McAdoo, whose health was broken by the last drive, will be unable to follow his custom of speaking throughout the country for the loan.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Secretary McAdoo has been ordered by physicians to a ranch in the West. Believing his trouble was serious, the doctors ordered complete rest.

36,000 JACKIES AT GREAT LAKES STATION

GREAT LAKES, Ill., June 20.—Enrollment at the Great Lakes naval station today reached the high mark of 36,000 jackies in training. Thousands have been sent to sea in the last 12 months.

GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL MEAT INDUSTRY OF THE NATION

Proclamation Requires Licenses For Packers and Commission Men

WASHINGTON, June 20.—President Wilson, in a proclamation issued today, requires owners of stockyards to secure licenses before July 25. The secretary of agriculture thereby is given virtual control of the yards to the end of conserving the food supply and directing its distribution.

Livestock commission men are also required to obtain licenses.

Application for licenses must be made to the law department, license division, U. S. food administration, Washington.

The president issued his proclamation under power granted him by congress last August to control production of food products in the interests of national security and defense.

The move is part of the plan to get greater co-operation between livestock raisers, the packers and the food administration.

Licensing of the stockyards is one of the recommendations of President Wilson's meat commission, which recently investigated the whole livestock industry. It is one of the big steps to stop speculation in food necessities. Speculators will be brought under government license and manipulation of the meat supply, especially beef, will be practically ended.

Secretary of Agriculture Houston is trusted with enforcement of the license proclamation.

BAKER APPROVES REGISTRATION OF ALL MEN, 18 TO 45

Fewer Men Will Be Called When Overseas Force Reaches Million Mark

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Drawings for the 21-year-old registration will be held at an early date, it was announced today. The drawing will be held in the same manner as the first one.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—With Secretary of War Baker favorable to an 18-45 draft age, congress is believed likely to frame its legislation practically on that line. It may be appended as an amendment to the army bill, for it appears the secretary is favorable to that method.

Provost Marshal Crowder is understood to advocate separate legislation. Crowder, too, is understood to favor lowering the draft age to 18, but Baker originally did not favor including youths of 18. Now he is favorable to including 18-year-old boys, saying their inclusion would have a less disturbing effect on industrial and family relations than would the drafting of many older men.

Baker has not made up his mind fully on the extension question but he declares he would undoubtedly endorse an 18-45 limit if submitted to him.

Incidentally he denies quite emphatically that there is any attempt or intention on the part of the war department to regulate or control labor except insofar as it guides it into useful war work.

It was expected today the provost marshal general's office soon will amplify its original statement concerning "work or fight" and also definitely establish the status of baseball players.

It developed today heavy calls for the draft will come next month but that thereafter a sliding scale of fewer men than heretofore will prevail. This is due to the situation recently pointed out by the United Press, namely, that transportation must be adjusted to supply problems soon after we pass the 1,000,000 troops mark.

DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST TURKEY IS FORSEEN

State Department Makes Formal Inquiry of Consulate Attack at Tabriz

WASHINGTON, June 20.—A resolution for a declaration of war against Bulgaria and Turkey was introduced in the House today by Congressman Kelly of Pennsylvania.

BY L. C. MARTIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Apparently preliminary to a war declaration against Turkey, the state department today formally inquired as to the reported Turkish transgressions against the American consulate and hospital at Tabriz.

The Spanish embassy was asked to investigate, inasmuch as the Spanish representative at Tabriz cared for American interests there and the Swedish legation was asked because it represented Teuton interests.

Congress is ready to declare war on Turkey immediately confirmation is obtained of the seizure of the American consulate and the attack on the American hospital at Tabriz, Persia.

The major sentiment in both houses favors such action and will await word from the president.

"There has never been any reason for delay that I could see," said Senator Harding, Ohio. "This may bring the result so many of us have desired so long."

Senator King, Utah, author of a resolution for a declaration of war on Turkey and Bulgaria, will probably see Secretary Lansing regarding the incident.

Greek, Serbian and Russian statesmen have manifested uneasiness of the safety of Americans in Turkey.

GREENE IS RELIEVED OF COMMAND AT CAMP LEWIS

Reduced to Rank of Brigadier General, Is On Way to Washington

TACOMA, June 20.—With Major General H. A. Greene relieved of his command of the 91st division and on his way to Washington to report, officers at Camp Lewis today were dumbfounded at the unexpected change that deprived the camp of its commander.

It is stated that General Greene is returning to his file rank of brigadier general in the regular army and will be assigned to the department of the Philippines at Manila. Brigadier General Foltz is in temporary command at Camp Lewis.

No official statement has been given out at division headquarters further than an admission that telegraphic orders returning General Greene to the rank of brigadier general were received.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Major General Henry A. Greene, who has been in command of the 91st army division at Camp Lewis, has been assigned to the command of the Philippines after demotion to the rank of brigadier general. It is understood Greene has protested the order and is coming to Washington in an effort to have it rescinded.

CLASS 2B MEN ARE PUT IN CLASS ONE

EUREKA, Cal., June 20.—All men classified for the draft in Class 2B have been ordered transferred to Class 1, the local board announced today. The order, which is effective June 29, means that married men in Humboldt county without children will go into Class 1.

KILL WORKMEN IN BERLIN PEACE DEMONSTRATIONS; RUSSIA REVOLT SPREADS

Bread Rioting in Austria; Labor Council Asks Speedy, General Peace; England Welcomes League-of-Nations Proposal; Flanders and Picardy Raiding May Presage New German Effort; Allies Take Eighteen Prisoners and Three Machine Guns in Raids.

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE MARNE, June 20.—The Americans squeezed the Germans out of a salient two-thirds of a mile deep and the same distance in width west of Torcy early today. The Germans did not stop to fight after the barrage started, and when the infantry charged there was no one to oppose them.

PARIS, June 20.—The resolution adopted by the Vienna workmen's council asking for immediate peace negotiations on the basis of no annexations, is to be delivered to the foreign office.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—On the Marne front American patrols crossed the river and brought back a number of prisoners. Gas attacks were used to a great extent in Lorraine, said the American communique today.

LONDON, June 20.—Heavily censored private messages indicate there have been great peace demonstrations in Berlin, Cologne, and Hamburg recently, according to a Stockholm dispatch published in the Post.

Military police dispersed the crowds, killing several workmen and arresting others.

AMSTERDAM, June 20.—Cavalry regiments have been rushed to Vienna, where extremely serious bread riots have broken out, according to advices from German sources today. The mobs are reported to have stationed Premier Von Seydler's residence and to have plundered bakeries. Establishment of martial law is declared likely.

The burgomaster has declined to guarantee a return to order, his demand for dried vegetables to make up for the lack of bread having been refused by government officials.

AMSTERDAM, June 20.—The Vienna labor council has passed a resolution declaring that a substantial, lasting improvement in the food situation is impossible during the war and demanding a speedy, general peace, it was learned here today.

At the same time the city council adopted a resolution energetically protesting against reduction of the bread ration.

ZURICH, June 20.—There is enormous feeling in Vienna regarding reduction of the bread ration, according to dispatches received today.

What is practically a general strike is said to be formulating in Vienna and Neustadt. The trouble is spreading to the provinces.

LONDON, June 20.—The revolution which broke out in Kiev has spread to the districts of Chernigoff and Bolutava, to the eastward, according to an intercepted wireless dispatch received in Moscow and relayed here. Forty thousand armed peasants in these districts are said to be organizing to resist the German-controlled Ukrainian government.

Artillery supplies and stores in Kiev are reported blown up. Street fights are common. The civilian population is fleeing.

LONDON, June 20.—Newspapers feature a pamphlet issued by Viscount Grey regarding a league of nations, which asserts the allies should follow President Wilson's lead in advocating such a league, designed to stamp out war.

Great Britain will meet the idea of the league with widespread cordiality, the pamphlet declares. Germany will oppose it so long as the German military party is in power, while Austria probably will welcome it. The pamphlet adds that the league must enforce peace by economic and military pressure.

PARIS, June 20.—"Between Montdidier and the Oise and in the Bois de Chaum region French detachments penetrated the German lines and took twenty prisoners," the French war office announced today.

LONDON, June 20.—Raiding activities such as presaged the last German drive were reported all along the Flanders front and the northern portion of the Picardy area by Field Marshal Haig today. Some of the raids led to sharp fighting, with heavy enemy casualties. The increased raiding activities were accompanied by an increase in artillery firing along the southern portion of the Flanders front and the northern part of the Picardy front.

"In the neighborhood of Boyelles, Lens, Givenchy and Strazelle there were a number of raids," the statement said. "Certain of these led to sharp fighting, with many enemy casualties. We took 18 prisoners and three machine guns."

"A hostile raiding party in the neighborhood of Morlanwelz was repulsed by artillery and rifle fire. "Between the Somme and the Aisne there was hostile artillery firing. On both sides of Albert and in the La Bassee canal section there was considerable reciprocal artillery fighting last night."

AUSTRIANS LOSE BRIDGES OVER PIAVE; ALLIES GO FORWARD

Enemy Forces Rolled Back In the Middle PIAVE, Lose Third of Gain

9000 PRISONERS ARE TAKEN BY ITALIANS

Elements Aid Allies, Swollen Stream Helps to Hem In the Hun

ROME, June 20.—Capture of 1200 prisoners and enforced withdrawal of the Austrians toward the eastern salient of Montello was announced by the War Department today.

On the Asiago front French troops carried enemy positions at Bertigo, taking over a hundred prisoners. Along the Piave the struggle is fluctuating with fierce fighting on the front line.

LONDON, June 20.—Italian forces are now counter attacking at various points along the whole Piave river line. It was authoritatively learned today.

On the middle Piave the Italians have driven forward to the west bank of the river, splitting the Austrian forces in that region and rolling them back to the north and south.

The enemy detachments on the lower Piave have been pushed back until now they hold only a third of their original advance toward Venice.

The Italians also made further slight gains at Nervesa, in the Montello region.

9000 Prisoners Taken

LONDON, June 20.—An unusual phase of the offensive is the capture of 9000 prisoners announced by the Italian war office. This is regarded as unique in defensive fighting.

The situation today, as indicated by the latest official reports, was regarded as continuing favorably for the Italians.

The fighting in the mountain region is still comparatively light, while the Italians are blocking every effort of the enemy to extend his gains along the river areas. The Austrian war office reported the extension of fighting westward to include the Tyrolean front.

"The number of prisoners in creases," Vienna declared.

Raiding and artillery activity in Flanders was reported by Field Marshal Haig.

Enemy Bridges Destroyed

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMIES IN THE FIELD, June 19.—(Night)—The elements are aiding the Italians. Heavy rains in the mountain regions have changed the Piave from a sluggish stream to a rushing flood, destroying bridges and cutting off Austrian forces on this side of the river from their source of supplies and reinforcements.

British airmen report that twelve of the fourteen bridges flung across the Piave by the enemy have been carried away. Trapped on the west bank, Austrian detachments are subjected to almost constant mauling by the Italian artillery and bombs dropped by Allied airmen, with no avenue of escape.

The Austrians thus caged in have an advantage in defensive positions and are yet too well supplied with ammunition to warrant a frontal attack. There is every possibility that exhaustion of their ammunition and food supplies, together with the pounding they are undergoing, will eventually force them to lay down their arms or sacrifice themselves in desperate assaults on the Italian lines.

Frantic efforts to restore the pontons so far have been frustrated by the swollen current and the accuracy of the Italian artillery.

The enemy's losses on all parts of the front in the first three days of the offensive are now estimated at 150,000.

The heaviest fighting is still around the bridgehead the Austrians have established in the lower Piave, from where they are trying to push westward toward Venice. The enemy now holds the west bank of the river from Mazzada to Bosaso and San Dona di Piave, a front of 18 kilometers (about 12 miles.)

Austrian artillery is pouring thou-

NO REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, IS DECISION

Central Committee, For Patriotic Reasons, Not to Make Campaign

MRS. IRVINE GOING TO SEEK NOMINATION

Resolution Is Passed Setting Forth Attitude of the Leaders

Yesterday afternoon the republican central committee of the eleventh congressional district passed a resolution that means that the Republicans of this district will make no campaign for a congressman this year.

That means, in brief, that Congressman William Kettner, of San Diego, Democrat, will be opposed for re-election by Mrs. Stella B. Irvine of Riverside, Prohibitionist.

Taking the ground that an attempt to make a campaign at this time would divert men and money from war activities, the Republican committee decided to bring forth no candidate for the Republican nomination. The decision was also in favor of asking no endorsement of either Kettner or Mrs. Irvine.

J. C. Bell of Los Angeles, Southern California superintendent of the Prohibition Party, Lew W. Irvine, husband of the Prohibition candidate, and Mrs. Elizabeth Mills of Orange appeared before the meeting of the congressional central committee. They urged that an endorsement be given. Their appearance before the committee however, was not until after the resolution had been passed, and the decision had been reached to make no endorsement.

Among important features of the meeting was the announcement of J. C. Bell that the Prohibition Party would have no candidate for assemblyman here against Walter Eden.

Committee Meets

The meeting was held on the call of its chairman, R. L. Riley of Colton, and its secretary, James Guthrie of San Bernardino. Those present were Riley, Guthrie, F. S. Kelly of San Bernardino; W. H. Ruk, Cucamonga; Earl Paul, C. E. Grier, T. R. Woodbridge, Uplands; J. C. Jones, Etiwanda; H. B. Mulvaine, San Bernardino; S. C. Evans, Riverside; W. P. Mansfield, Brawley; J. C. Thamer, Fullerton; R. Y. Williams, Z. B. West, W. B. Williams, N. T. Edwards, J. C. Burke, Walter Eden and T. E. Stephenson, Santa Ana. But three of these from each county are on the central committee. San Diego county had no representative present.

State Senator Evans was the first to state his ideas concerning the situation. He said that he believed that the patriotic thing for the Republicans to do this year was to have no candidate. He said that everyone these days is extremely busy, and he did not know of anyone who wanted to devote much time to a congressional race.

The resolution was presented by F. S. Kelly, and was adopted, with an amendment to the effect that the resolution shall be submitted by the secretary through the mail to those delegates who attended the congressional district conference at San Diego two years ago for their approval. James Guthrie stated that R. C. Harbison of San Bernardino, who was the Republican nominee for congressman two years ago, was unable to be present at the committee meeting, but he desired Guthrie to state to the committee that Harbison did not think it was advisable for the Republicans to have a candidate this year, but if the committee desired that there be a candidate and wanted him to be that candidate, he was at its service, though he preferred not to run.

Will Seek Nomination

It was stated after the conference by Irvine that petitions will be circulated in the district by which Mrs. Irvine will seek to have her name placed upon the Republican ballot for the Republican nomination. It is not known whether or not similar action will be taken by the Democrats in Kettner's behalf.

The Resolution

The resolution follows in full: "In view of the anomalous situation and unusual conditions confronting the country, the Republican congressional district committee of the Eleventh Congress District of California, after consideration and after advising with leading Republicans from many counties in the district, hereby adopts the following statement and course of action.

"First: The winning of the war is not only the paramount issue but the only question to which citizens should address themselves when outlining a course of political action.

"Second: The election of congressmen who will actively support the national government in the successful carrying on of the war and its prosecution to ultimate and complete victory becomes the first duty of the voters of every congress district in the United States.

"Third: To oppose the re-election of a congressman who has zealously and heartily supported the war might possibly be construed as unwise and unpatriotic, even though the candidate named against him be equally zealous and hearty in his support of the war program.

"Fourth: While national policies are involved, there is no natural campaign for president this year and the national administration cannot be changed until following the election of 1920, when we confidently expect the Republican party to be summoned back to power, either to complete the war, or to have charge of the period of economic world reconstruction which must follow.

"Fifth: Because of these facts the Republican congressional committee of the Eleventh congress district of California believes that it is the patriotic thing to do to make no congressional campaign in this district this year, and we announce this conviction without abating in the least our loyalty to those national policies which are distinctively Republican, and without either justifying or condoning the vote of the congressman from this district which was cast for a tariff bill the effects of which must have been ruinous to the industries of this district, had not the war intervened to completely overturn the normal trend of trade and commerce.

"Sixth: We are therefore calling no district conference to make an endorsement or recommendation to the Republican voters in the primary election, and we recommend that no such conference be held, and no nomination made. But appreciating that at the earliest possible moment following the declaration of peace it will be of the utmost importance that the district again be represented by a Republican congressman at Washington, we urge that the Republicans of the district shall then select such a candidate and unite to elect him in the succeeding November."

Hope It's Stephens

"Our Prohibition Party leaders in this state have agreed that the big thing this year is the election of a state administration that will vote for the national prohibition amendment," said Superintendent Bell in his talk to the committee. "We have agreed to set aside party interest in the interest of putting California over into the right column for that national amendment."

"We have agreed that the Prohibition Party shall have no candidate for governor or lieutenant-governor. We will vote for governor and lieutenant-governor for the man who will be right on the subject. I am in hopes that the Republican nominee will be the present governor, for we know how he stands on the dry question."

"All up and down the state we are following the policy of not putting in opposing candidates when there is already in another party a satisfactory candidate for the legislature. I came down here with a particular business in view not long ago. That business was to make an investigation to determine whether or not Walter Eden, who is your candidate here for the nomination for assemblyman, was the kind of a man we as Prohibitionists could get behind. I found that beyond question he was that kind of a man, and the Prohibition Party is not going to have any candidate for assemblyman against him."

WAS SUCCESSFUL IN HARBOR TRIP TO WASHINGTON

Lew Wallace Returns, Will File Report With Newport City Trustees

Rejoicing over the success of his efforts in interest of the Newport Harbor project, Lew H. Wallace has returned to Newport Beach from a month's trip east, during which he appeared before the Board of Army Engineers at Washington. Wallace admits he received a very cordial reception, and the government officials looked with favor upon his request that Col. Heuer's report be taken before congress and made public through the Congressional Record, but today would not make a complete statement on the result of his mission, feeling that the report should be first presented to the city trustees of Newport, who sent him to Washington.

The army engineers, he said, were quite willing that the Heuer report be made public, and promised their aid to that end. They also said that Orange county is doing the right thing by proceeding with the harbor work, that being the proper thing to do before trying to get government aid for future development.

Wallace will give his report to the Newport city council at a special executive session next Monday evening.

KOSHER SHOPS MAY CLOSE TOMORROW, AS RESULT OF BOYCOTT

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—Unless the boycott against them is ended by tomorrow night, twenty-two kosher meat markets here will close their shops for good, their owners announced today through the Retail Butchers' Association. The ultimatum follows a boycott of the shops by the Boyle Heights Consumers' League. Declaring the prices charged are unreasonably high, the league members are picketing the shops.

As the strike affects nearly every kosher shop in the city, it looks as though there will be "meatless days" aplenty for the Hebrew population unless the boycott ends today.

NEW BEAN PLANT

ZELZAH, June 20.—The Ennis-Brown Company of Sacramento has just closed a deal with the Zelzah bean growers to erect a bean cleaner and warehouse at this place. The plant when completed will cost about $25,000. Over 3000 acres of beans have already been contracted for the new concern, and it is believed that 5000 acres will be contracted before the plant is completed.

Sgt. Arthur Guy Empey in Vitagraph's master production, "Over the Top."

'Over the Top' Begins Here Today at the Clune Theatre

Had it not been for the fact that Sergeant Arthur Guy Empey was wounded in the service of Freedom against the German horde, the motion picture public would never have had the opportunity to see the greatest war picture of all the age, "Over the Top," which is a Vitagraph of star-feature caliber, booked for two days at Clune's theatre, commencing today.

Imbued with the idea of showing America what Prussianism meant, and armed with a personal knowledge of his subject, Empey first wrote the book, which in a few weeks became a "best seller." He next obtained the sanction of the War Department, and "borrowed" some 7500 soldiers, and proceeded to show just what war actually is like "over there." He happily wove a romantic story, of love between a soldier and an American girl, and the quick transformation of a confirmed coward into a hero under the strain of battle, into the picture, with the fields of Flanders as a setting. The result is the most thrilling, stirring, blood-tinting picture which has yet set the screen world agog.

Among the screen favorites who appear in this picture are Lois Meredith, James Morrison, Arnold Donaldson, Nellie Anderson, and Empey himself. The latter man—a genius beyond question, sets an example in convincing acting which histrionic stars would do well to follow. Those who see "Over the Top" will go out and tell their friends to see it, so great is the patriotic inspiration of both the story and the action of Empey's masterpiece.

THE new Brunswick Method of Reproduction has met with instant acclaim. And music lovers predict for The Brunswick complete leadership.

Never before have people known such an advanced type of phonograph. It lacks all the crudities of yesterday.

Tone is more natural than ever before. The most difficult selections, such as piano and orchestra, are played with absolute fidelity.

The Brunswick Method of Reproduction includes The Ultona. Now all records can be played in the exact way each requires. A turn of the hand and the proper needle and diaphragm are presented to each type of record.

Heretofore one-record instruments have prevailed. Some require attachments. None of the leading phonographs can offer the advantages of The Ultona.

Your ideas of phonographic values are bound to change now. You cannot be satisfied with yesterday's standards. Times have changed.

Come in today and hear the wonderful Brunswick which is made by The Brunswick-Balke-Clender Co. See if you do not agree that it is the most perfect.

CLERK DECAMPS WITH MONEY OF EMPLOYERS

Harry Williams Makes Collections For C. & C. Produce Co., Skips

B. C. Swisshelm and H. B. Cummings of the C. & C. Produce Company, have had their confidence in humanity rudely shaken. The shake cost them about $50 and today officers of Southern California are searching for Harry Williams, who is responsible for the condition the produce men find themselves in today. Williams decamped yesterday with about $38 collected by him for the firm. He was a perfect stranger to the men when they employed him about a week ago to assist them in their business. He was a good, honest appearing young man of about 19 years. Yesterday afternoon Swisshelm sent him out to make collections from business firms to whom produce had been delivered during the day. As far as the firm can determine he slipped away with about $38. A shortage of about $14 in the cash till a few days ago is now attributed to his peculations.

Williams left here yesterday afternoon for Los Angeles on the 3:50 o'clock P. E. car and before his departure told a friend that he was going to Vernon. Swisshelm and Cummings went to Los Angeles last night and reached Vernon about 9:30 only to find that they were about ten minutes behind Williams. He had been refused permission to the dance hall because of his age and had departed about ten minutes before his employers arrived.

When he took employment with the firm he told them that he came from Whittier. Swisshelm today is in Whittier endeavoring to get trace of him.

PAYS FINE OF $200 AND JAIL SENTENCE TO HANG OVER HIM

This morning Martin Etchandy of Yorba pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor illegally and Justice Cox fined him $200 and gave him a sentence of 200 days in jail, with an order that the jail sentence be suspended so long as Etchandy refrained from the temptation to make some easy money selling booze. Etchandy is a rancher. He was arrested by the sheriff. The sentence by Cox was recommended to him by the prosecutors.

BRIDGE PLANS WARRANT IS SUBJECT OF ACTION

A mandamus action has been brought by C. A. P. Turner against City Clerk Vegely in an effort to compel him to deliver a warrant for $1750 to Turner. The complaint states that the warrant was drawn in favor of E. T. Flaherty in payment for the plans for the North Main street bridge. The warrant was assigned by Flaherty to Turner. After the warrant was assigned a garnishee notice was served on the city by a claimant against Flaherty. That is the reason the city clerk has held the warrant. Vegely is notified by Judge Thomas to appear in court at 10 a. m., June 21, to show cause why he should not deliver the warrant to Turner.

CASE IS DISMISSED
Inability to show that Dolan Robinson of Brea knew that automobile tires that he bought were stolen caused the dismissal yesterday of a charge of having received stolen goods. Attorneys Bishop and Launer appeared for Robinson.

There had been intimations that the tires in question had been stolen from a Santa Fe car. Yesterday evidence was produced to prove that the tires were shipped by way of the Santa Fe. When Deputy District Attorney Menton found that he would be unable to prove that Robinson had any knowledge of the fact that the tires were stolen, the case was ended.

SAYS THERE'S MISTAKE IN BURGLARY CHARGE

W. A. Ferguson, a horticultural inspector of Banning, declares that he is the victim of a mistake. He was arrested on a charge of having attempted to burglarize Dr. Brothers' office in a search for morphine. Ferguson's preliminary examination was set for June 24 at 2 p. m., and he easily gave $500 bond. According to statements by Ferguson's friends—and he seems to be amply supplied with them—Ferguson was stopping at Newport Beach. He has often been troubled severely with asthma, and during the attacks he has often been given prescriptions for morphine tablets. It is alleged that he had been given such a prescription by Dr. Brothers, and he had returned to the doctor's office for another prescription when he was arrested. For Ferguson, it is declared that he had no intention to burglarize.

SUIT BROUGHT FOR PROTECTING CITY'S SHIP SITE INTEREST

In order to protect the city's interests in a shipbuilding site at the entrance to Newport Bay, the city of Newport Beach yesterday brought action against C. D. Everett and the Newport Shipbuilding Corporation. On March 20 Everett secured a lease to the property, comprising twelve acres. He transferred his lease to the Newport Shipbuilding Company, composed of Los Angeles men.

Under the lease construction of a 1000-foot bulkhead should have commenced at once. It has not been commenced. The complaint alleges that because of that fact the cancellation of the lease has been demanded, and suit is brought to declare title to the land to be in Newport Beach.

It was stated today that the shipbuilding company has not abandoned the project for establishing a ship yard at the entrance to the bay, and the action brought by the beach city is a formal action to protect the city's interests under the lease, particularly since it is possible for the lease to be transferred to some one outside the state, in which case difficulties in protecting the city's interests might develop.

PLAN WINTER PEAS

OXNARD, June 20.—Prospects for the tomato canning season of the McCroskey Packing Company are so encouraging that F. B. McCroskey, manager of the plant, is now endeavoring to interest ranchers in the Hueneme section in the growing of winter peas. If sufficient acreage can be secured, he will install equipment for handling this crop next winter. Local climate and soil conditions would permit the planting of peas as soon as beets or beans are harvested, and it is believed that the crop could be grown without irrigation. The growing of peas would enrich the land, they being a leguminous crop, and the crop would also enrich the rancher to an extent of some $100 an acre, it is believed.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

ON THE DRY QUESTION

The declaration yesterday of J. C. Hall, superintendent of the Prohibition party for Southern California, that the stand of Gov. William D. Stephens upon the dry question is satisfactory to the Prohibition party leaders means that the governor's nomination by the Republican party for re-election will bring to his support for the November election many thousands of votes in California. It will not be at all surprising if the governor receives the Prohibition nomination by having his name written in upon the ballot at the August primaries by members of the Prohibition party. Governor Stephens was the first candidate for the governorship who declared himself upon the wet and dry question. What he said follows:

With our nation at war, the elimination of the saloon becomes a patriotic as well as an economic necessity. I am positively and wholeheartedly in favor of closing the saloons in California.

When a member of Congress, I voted for the submission of an amendment to the federal constitution providing for nationwide prohibition. The war has brought to us a full realization of the wastage of human and material resources through the saloon and the liquor traffic. I favor the national amendment now before the states for ratification.

TO SAVE ENERGY

The decision of the Republican central committee of the Eleventh Congressional district to bring forward no candidate for congress this year need bring forth no expression of surprise. In the last few days there has been a noticeable trend throughout California toward an agreement of Republicans and Democrats not to waste time and energy in political campaigns when the men holding office are worthy and have been right upon the one big thing, the war. Los Angeles Democrats are not going to oppose Congressman Osborne, and San Francisco Democrats concede that Congressman Kahn's support of the president in the war program entitles him to re-election without going through a hard campaign. The action of the committee here was in keeping with the spirit of both parties in this state, for both are forgetting party differences in carrying forward the cause to which we as a united people are everlastingly committed.

TRAINING OF YOUNG WOMEN AS NURSES

The demand for nurses today is so great that we are having numerous inquiries as to where training may be acquired in the shortest possible time, and so the following information will, therefore, be of interest.

A twelve weeks course is to be given at the University of California June 24 to September 14, upon completion of which college graduates will be entitled to one year's credit in any accredited school of nursing. Application should be made to the Dean of Women, 205 California Hall, University of California, Berkeley.

High school and normal school graduates who have completed satisfactory work in chemistry, biology and physiology, nutrition and cookery may be admitted to any accredited school of nursing with six months' credit.

High school and normal school graduates who have not had this preparatory work will be able to obtain it at the Santa Barbara Normal School, the course running from June 24 to August 30.

It may be necessary to transfer women for the last year of training to military hospitals, where the course would be completed while in national service. At the end of this time students will be eligible for examination for state registration.

The demand for nurses, not amateurs, will be overwhelming from now on, and the American nurse will have the world for her field.

Do You Eat Patriotically?

It is a patriotic duty to eat properly, according to Mrs. Alice Peloubet Norton, editor of the Journal of Home Economics, and associated now with the United States Food Administration. This means eating regularly, slowly, and cheerfully, with emphasis on the smile that accepts all forms of war bread and sweetest desserts without grumbling.

"It is not a patriotic boast to say, 'I didn't have time for lunch,' or 'I swallowed my food whole.' Instead of a patriotic duty, it is a betrayal of the trust reposed in your common sense and intelligence," declares Mrs. Norton.

"Eat properly; that is a patriotic duty. Let only an emergency interfere, and don't let that emergency occur often. We ought to boast that we can accomplish our work so that we have time for our meals, and if we take time for our meals we can accomplish more work. It seems to me that there has never been a time when it is so necessary for everyone to be at his best, mentally and physically, and to have poise both of mind and of body. Half eaten, hurried meals do not make for poise.

"Today one of the things we need is speed, but we get more speed when we can think clearly, and we think clearly when our bodies are well. It is only the genius who can keep busy every minute, without meals and proper rest, and still work effectively. Many persons set such a pace that by the end of the day they are excited and hysterical. When an emergency comes they cannot meet it. They fail when they are most needed. Their nerves may break down under the strain they have imposed upon themselves. In America we often say, 'I am so busy.' We say so much about it that we make ourselves feel hurried just by talking. And after all, the 'busy' is very much in our own attitude.

"It is worth while occasionally even to sit still and hold one's hands. We need more of the serenity and peace that come with quiet. Instead of speeding up, we actually lose time if we don't get a certain amount of recreation. Even President Wilson goes golfing.

"Smile while you eat. Don't grumble about the food. The mental and spiritual attitude counts for digestibility. If you go to a lunch room and complain about the food, or go home and complain about the food, that whole spirit is unfavorable to digestion."

Comment By County Papers

Placencia Courier: In England the authorities have been empowered to enter upon any land not in use and let plots at nominal rent to those who are willing to work it. Not a bad idea, either.

Garden Grove News: "Work or fight" is the command. We have all seen people who can do both at once. Which should they give up?

Seal Beach Wave: Since 1914, 7,000,000 German soldiers have been put out of business by death, wounds or capture. But the kaiser and his sons are safe.

Seal Beach Wave: The practice of making alien enemies kiss the flag should be stopped. The American flag is too sacred an emblem to be touched by the foul lips of those who do not reverence and respect it.

Garden Grove News: Lloyd George says "the next few weeks will be a race between Hindenburg and President Wilson." We will bet on the president. He has the build of a good runner, he is not weighted down with the trappings of autocracy, and best of all, he has an enthusiastic crowd to root for him.

Orange News: German thoroughness has overreached itself in Russia—as usual.

The downfall of Russia, as everybody knows, was due to internal disorganization planned and carried out by Germany. How completely the German agents did their work is seen in a striking little word picture of Russia given by a returned American:

"A nation of famished cities and ragged people, a nation in which each community is trying selfishly to live altogether to itself, a nation of idle men, a nation without a government."

And thus, for present purposes at least, Prussia's criminal meddling has brought its own punishment. The same observer sums up the situation thus:

"The Germans have done their work so well that Russia today is useless even to the Germans."

Famous Men Who Never Knew Luxuries

Girard in Philadelphia Evening Telegraph—Shakespeare never drank a cup of tea, never tasted coffee, never smoked a cigar, never ate a potato and never sipped a glass of cocoa, never ate a potato and never smoked a cigar. Yet he managed to lead a variegated life and write plays that you still go to see.

Napoleon, who died ninety-seven years ago, never saw a steamboat nor a railroad train, nor even a gas light, but he ruled all Europe.

Lincoln never saw an electric light nor talked through a telephone, but he freed four million slaves.

I doubt if William McKinley ever rode in a motor car. Certainly U. S. Grant never knew of the wireless. They both rose to fame and went to the White House.

The finest piece of architecture on earth was erected at Athens by men who never saw a newspaper.

St. Peter's Cathedral was the product of Michael Angelo's brain, but he never read a book that came from a printing press or saw a mechanically typed page.

Raphael painted his immortal Madonnas, but he never ate a corn muffin.

Cleopatra never wore a velvet gown, and even if Helen of Troy was so beautiful that she caused a 10-year war, she never owned a pair of leather shoes.

George Eliot never beheld a movie, but she wrote "Adam Bede," which is a somewhat more important thing to have done.

I presume that of all the women who ever lived in the world not five of them contributed more to the pleasure of a greater number of other women and men than the wife of a Chinese emperor. Forty-six centuries ago that empress discovered that a worm could make silk and she started the silk industry for this entire world.

Bud Flivver's Observations

 Old Riley Mudd—Is in the midst—Of another spell of sickness—And he sent for me—To come and see him—

 And I asked him—How did he feel—And he said—If he felt any worse—He wouldn't be able—To feel at all—

 And I asked him—Why didn't he—Go to the hospital—And have some more things removed—Like he did before—

 And he said—He was homesick—For the parts—That had already been removed—And he would die of loneliness—If he lost any more—

 And he said—They were giving him—Enough medicine—To kill an elephant—And he didn't believe—It was the right kind—

 And I told him—If I was as rich—As he was—I would have a nurse—To take care of me—

 And he said—He liked nurses—And would have one—But his folks—Wouldn't allow it—

 And when his sister—And his niece—Left the room—He motioned for me—To come over—To his bed—

 And he said—"Did you notice how gloomy—My relatives—Are acting—And everything"—

 And he said—"That is because—I'm feeling better today—And they are afraid—I will get well—"

 "And when I was—Feeling worse yesterday—They thought I was going to die—And they were cheerful—"

 And he said—He wanted me—To be a witness—To his will—And he would leave everything to charity—

 And I got to thinking—How much happier—A poor man is—When it comes—Time for him to die—

 And he knows—That his relatives—Are in earnest—When they go round—Looking sad and remorseful—

 And I know—That old Riley—Will get well—And he will—Tear up his new will—

 And he loves his kinkles—And he will forget—How he thought—They were waiting—For him to turn up his toes—By Bud.

TEACHERS SIGN OATH AT HIGH SCHOOL TODAY

Notary Acknowledges Signature of Those Who Are Signing

Those of the high school faculty who have not as yet signed the oath of allegiance necessary for them to continue teaching in the schools are doing so this afternoon. John McFadden is at the school acknowledging the signatures of the signers, arrangements having been made for him to be at the office for the convenience of the teachers. Tomorrow afternoon grammar school teachers will sign the oath.

The oath is as follows: "I, being first duly sworn, depose and say that I am a citizen of the United States of America and am employed as a teacher by the Santa Ana school district, Orange county, Cal.

"That I will support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States of America and of the state of California, and against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and I will bear true and faithful allegiance to the same.

"I will, to the best of my ability, support all war activities."

CHAPTER WANTS A STUDENT FOR RED CROSS

Santa Ana Has Opportunity to Send Representative to Pasadena

Santa Ana chapter, American Red Cross, has been given an opportunity to send a representative to the Chapter Student Instructors Course to be given at the Pasadena chapter under division headquarters direction.

The instructors course will begin at Pasadena on July 1. The purpose of the course is to train instructors who will return to their own chapters and organize and give the course there. The course is standardized.

"The result of the Chapter Student Course," says a bulletin received by the chairman of the Santa Ana chapter, "is to stimulate co-operation, increase efficiency and familiarize workers with the history and importance of the Red Cross, as well as train them in all branches of Red Cross work."

VETERAN WRITES FROM HOSPITAL IN FRANCE

The following interesting letter has been received by a Santa Ana friend from a Canadian soldier who went over with the first contingent of Dominion troops and has been in active service since 1914:

My Dear Friend: It is impossible for me to try to thank you for your kind letters and you do not know what they mean to me here. Letters are the only comfort we have. There are times when we have such longings to get away from this war, we feel so hopeless, but we soon get over it. The thought that the people at home are working and thinking of us, keeps us up. I was in the big battle beginning March 21. Have been in the hospital for a month now. We got a bad cutting up. Some of the old boys who were waiting and looking forward to going on leave to Canada, have paid the great price. Splendid fellows, all of them. They have helped make our brigade famous. I pray that your men will not have to come through what we have suffered. Oh, what men I have seen! A poor chap who had both arms blown off and both legs shattered asked for a cigarette. When it was offered him, he said, "I forget a cannot smoke—I have no arms." Two minutes later he had closed his eyes, and with a smile on his face, had gone where there is no more pain. But enough—I do not like to dwell on this war. I have seen so much of it. Often when I have come out of a battle, I have thought my hair had turned white from the awful strain of shell fire. I have been in the line, almost without food for four or five days. But I must not say any more. I am sending my picture. Tell me what you think of my service stripes. The red one is for 1914, only, the three blue ones for each year of active service. Yesterday I saw a train load of American soldiers, and when they saw me they gave a shout for good old Canada. Most of them had flags. We are having awful times here now. We do not get much peace and little rest. God grant that it will soon end. I hope your country will not have to pay the awful price. In manhood, that Great Britain and France have had to pay. Wonderful France! Her men are the greatest fighters. There is not one of us but likes to have them by our side when we are in a tight place.

EDMUND RALPH, Sergeant Major, First Canadian Cavalry.

RED CROSS GIRLS FEED HUNDREDS OF AMERICAN TROOPERS

Gallant Cantinieres Zealous in Supplying Needs of Our Soldiers in France

BY GEORGE BUCHANAN FIFE
(Written for the United Press)

BEHIND THE AMERICAN FRONT IN FRANCE, May 18. (By mail.)—If the censor would look the other way for just a moment, it would be the easiest thing in the world to tell you the location of this particular American Red Cross cantine. But, as he never does that, the only geographical reference which may be made is that it is in Central France, an "L.O.C." cantine—brief for "Line of Communications"—and close beside a railway station through which thousands of American soldiers pass on the way from their port of arrival in France to their destined posts.

The cantine was settling into early evening quiet. Only two of its many tables were occupied. At the counter across the lower end of the room one of the cantine workers was bent over an account book, studying the day's receipts. Beside her another was dividing her interest between a cup of tea and a newspaper.

The door at the lower end of the long room was suddenly opened in great haste and the head of one of the orderlies of the U. S. Provost Marshal's office next door popped into the light.

"There's a train just coming in with a lot of our boys on it!" he cried.

The account book closed with a snap. The humming ceased. The tea-reader sprang from her chair. Quick footsteps sounded behind the partition.

"Stopping or going through?" This from the accountant as she darted into the kitchen.

"Going to stop about ten minutes."

"Which track?"

"Last one over, Miss."

If angels were endowed with the priceless gift of profanity, this answer might have received its proper due. Instead, however, it was accepted with a surprisingly mild comment, which, for all that, came valiantly through the partition:

"Well, we've just got to climb!"

And the orderly grinned as he closed the door.

With only ten minutes in which to get food to "a lot of our boys"—which might mean thirty or three hundred—and every last one of them hungry as a bear, the cantinieres had not a moment to lose. While some were piling the reserve stock of jam, cheese and ham sandwiches in large baskets, others were filling tall, pitcher-like metal pots with coffee and chocolate from the purring steamers or gathering up cups. When the basket lids and the pot tops were fastened tight, the young women sprang out of their cantine as if they were going "over the top." And in a way, they were, too.

In pairs, with the baskets swinging between them, the pitcher-pots weighing them down on the other side, the tin cups clanking, they ran across the narrow roadway to the station sidewalk, bumped and scrambled through a doorway and raced out upon the platform.

The nearest track was empty, the next held a long train of tightly coupled black freight-vans—the cars with the Americans aboard were on the second track beyond the freight!

Now, to most women a freight train presents itself as a forbidding wall; not so the Red Cross girls. So, when the four cantinieres had located their all unsuspecting guests, they dashed for the nearest space between two of the coupled freight cars. How they got over the buffers and through the high narrow opening hampered with their baskets and pots, to say nothing of their skirts, invades the realm of pure acrobatics. But they did get through, baskets, pots, and all, by dint of much boosting and pulling and handing, and gained the other side, breathless but undismayed.

A tall, lean sergeant pushed through the group and threw his hand to the brim of his hat. "Can't I help you, Miss?"

"Indeed you can; get some of your men to take these along the cars." She thrust a coffee pitcher in his hand. "And here's a basket of sandwiches. We'll go up the other way."

By this time the entire place was in a good-natured uproar. To reduce the confusion and the crowding and to make distribution easier, the sergeants ordered most of the men back into their cars.

With such a crowd of eager men—there were more than two hundred on the train, an engineer detachment—the coffee and chocolate pots were soon emptied. And as soon as one had been drained of the last drop an agile young cantiniere would dash off with it, climb again through the high space between the cars and bring it back brimming anew. So it was with the sandwich baskets, because others of the cantine staff had remained behind to slice the loaves and spread them with jam or whatever else availed as a "stuffer."

As the train drew out they ran along the platform beside it, thrusting sandwiches into the eagerly outstretched hands at the windows until they could no longer keep pace. Out of breath, but very happy and very contented, the six wingless, freight-car climbers watched the train go, smiling and answering to the very last soldier in the very last car, the hats and hands that were waved to them in thanks and good-bye. They gathered up their pots and cups and baskets and once again climbed over the buffers and, so, to the cantine.

The very next night this cantine was surprised again. The Provost Marshal's orderly poked his head through the doorway as usual, this time, however, with the announcement that the train bringing in the American soldiers had only about one hundred and fifty aboard and that they would not pull out till 2 o'clock in the morning.

I was in the cantine when the detachment came in, headed by the captain, a lieutenant, and a top sergeant. It was as husky a crowd of tall, brown, lean-jawed Americans as one might ever hope to find. And it came in wondering at the place in which it found itself after eight hours of weary railway travel with no sign of crumb or drop save on a very distant horizon.

When the men came in there were six or seven French soldiers at one of the tables in the rear of the room. As the Americans flowed back in that direction, with the filling of the tables nearest to the door, the poilus instantly got up and one of them beckoned to a soldier and indicated the vacant places.

"That's all right, you keep it," the soldier replied, shaking his hand.

The Frenchman insisted, and so did the American, the former with much gesturing and the latter with perfectly good and unintelligible English. Finally the American turned to one of his fellows and said, "Say, Phil, get out your parlex-vous book and tell this guy they're all right but we don't want to take their places."

But the Frenchman did not wait. He went up to the American, took him by the arm and insisted upon leading him to the table, beckoning to the others to follow and pointing to the empty chairs. The invitation was too gracious to be declined and as the Americans took the places the first of them thrust out an impulsive hand and grasped the poilu by the shoulder.

"I know you don't get me, old man," he said slowly, "but I want you to know that I think you're all right, a regular feller, see."

And there was something in the tone of his voice that must have reached the poilu.

While the men were receiving the soup and sandwiches and coffee the top sergeant was everywhere about the room and neither he nor the two commissioned officers had either bite or sup until the last enlisted man had been served.

"Don't you believe for one little minute that we'll ever forget your kindness," a soldier called out from the threshold. "And you just bet I'm going to write home to the folks in Wyoming all about it!"

"Thanks, and tell your mothers, a of you, that the Red Cross will take care of you every time it gets chance!" came in answer.

EFFICIENCY CLUB

Initiation of Candidates and Good Speaking Were Enjoyable Features

The regular monthly meeting of the Efficiency Club was held last evening at the Santa Ana office of the Southern Counties Gas Company.

The entertainment committee consisting of H. G. Miller, V. Y. Hinkle, E. L. Peacock, Fuller Holt, B. L. Glazner and R. J. Baker, presented a series of complete surprises. Following the meeting came an innovation in the form of initiation for new members. Nine candidates were given three degrees. The ritual, which was written by the entertainment committee, was a source of much amusement both to the candidates and members of the club.

District Attorney L. A. West and Sheriff C. E. Jackson were the guests of the evening. Mr. West gave an excellent, instructive talk on "Efficiency," and Mr. Jackson entertained the members with some very good stories.

The out-of-town members present were J. C. Pake, purchasing agent, and E. E. Hendricks, superintendent of automobiles, both of Los Angeles. The crowning success of the evening was the trout supper.

This was claimed the most successful meeting of the year.

Musical Association to Have Picnic

In order that all may be provided with transportation, it is especially requested that all those who can accommodate one or more extra in their machines, and all those who are not otherwise provided with transportation, phone F. J. Haynes at the earliest possible opportunity.

MICE AND MEN

Fine Performance Given at High School Auditorium
By Orange Students

The Orange Union high school quite covered itself with glory last night, when it presented at the Santa Ana high school auditorium its class play, "Mice and Men." The cast was one of particular excellence, and a large audience enjoyed the performance by the histrionic talent of the neighboring school.

The scenery was above the ordinary, the garden scene, with hollyhocks nodding over the wall, being especially effective.

"Mice and Men" is a romantic comedy, and has been presented on the regular stage by first-class talent, and the fact that last night's cast gave such a good account of themselves speaks well for the actors and those who trained them.

Mabel Terry as Peggy, the little orphan girl, quite won the hearts of those who saw her. Her portrayal of the part was beautifully done. Helen Wyland as the rather villainous Joanna Goodlake, was also a striking success, a fact which proved that she is a real actress. Robert Campbell, Wayne McGill, Lawrence Phillips and other leading characters contributed much to the success of the play. Much snap was added by the "chorus" of orphans and masqueraders.

Costuming and scenery for the play were eminently correct and the music was a pleasing feature.

The play was given twice in Orange. The proceeds from last night are evenly divided, both high schools devoting their shares to war service work.

Shower for Bride

Mrs. Roy Noble, a very recent bride, formerly Miss Mary Hamilton, was given a miscellaneous shower Monday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. M. Hamilton, on West Fifth street, when a goodly number of her girl friends bestowed upon her a large number of dainty and useful gifts. Pink sweet peas and asparagus ferns decorated the pretty home, and pink and white prevailed in the dainty cakes and ice cream.

Mrs. Hamilton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Hoxie. Those who shared the pleasant evening were: Misses Blanch Crowther, Rose Parker, Gladys Cook, Sybil Pritchett, Lily Chaffee, Amy Brown, Edna Brooks, Gertrude Adams, Alpha Barry, Myrtle Huff, Louise Calhoun, Ruth Riley, Verona Cozad, Vera Fulton, Edith Carey, Mildred Hoxie, Hazel and Ivy Hamilton.

Dinner for Miss Russer

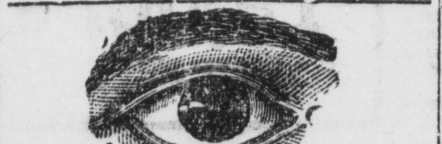

Mrs. H. J. Maier was hostess Tuesday evening at a dinner party complimenting Miss Charlotte Russer, who leaves soon for Cleveland. Other guests were the members of the Delta Kappa Class of Zion's Evangelical Church. Carnations and ferns centered the table, and the place cards bore the same flower. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. Miss Russer was given a Friendship book.

CHOIR PICNIC

United Presbyterian Songsters Enjoy Evening at County Park

The choir of the United Presbyterian Church had another one of its every-once-in-awhile good times last night at the Orange County Park, to which place the members went by autos furnished by several members of the church.

Of course, "hot dog" was on the menu for the evening, and Head Cook Leigh, "Pop" Galloway, surely did roast them to a turn. Onions also had an important part on the program of eats. Chili beans were not a side dish, but were the "main" stay, and ice cream at the last cooled the diners.

After supper several tried out the toboggan slide.

The crowd would not have felt natural if it had not had a "sing," so all broke forth into melody, singing the old-time songs, with an occasional parody.

Every one had a good time, and now plans are being made for the next outing at Laguna Beach about the middle of July.

Lincoln School Teachers Are

and Mrs. Heil

The teachers of Lincoln school were the guests yesterday afternoon and evening of Mrs. H. M. Robertson and Mrs. Charles F. Heil at Mrs. Heil's cottage at Newport Beach. The party motored down as soon as school was out. The cool breeze and sparkling water were a treat in themselves, and those who wished a dip in the ocean availed themselves of the opportunity. A Wiener bake on the sands, accompanied by buns, pickles and the usual good things, was done ample justice to at supper time, and toasted marshmallows were an especial treat. Those who shared the outing were Mr. and Mrs. Heil, Wendell, Helen and Elizabeth Heil, Mrs. H. M. Robertson, Misses Linda Paul, Glenna Abbott, Mary Giffen, Ursula Lee, Lois Thacker, Alma Stewart, Adeline Hill, Annis Snow, Mrs. Trees and Mr. Casky.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sebastian of Anaheim and Miss Effie Holland and Miss Lela Sebastian of Santa Ana returned Sunday from a four days' sojourn in Bear Valley. On the return trip the party was delayed five hours by a hailstorm in the mountains. J. D. Parsons and daughter, Miss Pauline Parsons of 106 East Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morrison of East Seventeenth street, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Cloyes and daughter, Miss Inez, leave tomorrow for a week's stay at Camp Baldy.

SPEAKER FROM MANILA

First Methodist Church Foreign Missionary Society
Hears Miss Decker

At the First M. E. Church Foreign Missionary Society held yesterday afternoon, the members greatly enjoyed an address by Mrs. Decker, from the Philippine Islands.

She went to the Philippines in 1907 and has been connected with the Haris Memorial school in Manila, from which 105 girls have been graduated, and 61 of these are now in the employ of the W. F. M. society teaching others what they have been taught during their three years in the training school. Some girls come to the school just to be in Manila, some come without purpose, are converted to Christianity, and marvelously transformed, and go back to their homes to do a wonderful work. The first graduates now bring the new scholars. Miss Decker, who is called the "Little Bishop of the Philippines," prefers to have scholars who have already gone to Uncle Sam's public schools for six years, for they have had some training in the English language and they have learned to study. In the school they are taught first of all the Bible, the way of salvation being made plain to them. They are taught every branch of housework, sewing, nursing and the care and training of children. They learn to play hymns on the little folding organ that the society helps them to secure to use in their work outside. As each girl graduates she is provided with a bag containing soap, boracic acid powder, pain killer, and other simple medicines, bandages, safety pins, and a little hand basin. Many live far from a drug store far up in the tobacco country and they have nothing but their superstition, poverty, disease and dirt—not a convenience of any description in their homes. The graduates go among these people, teach them sanitation and how to care for their sick ones, reaching the older ones first through their medicines and the little ones through pictures on them. The girls do not want to leave their beloved school, but are eager to go home to have the people changed as they have been. There are two classes in the country of 9,000,000 people—the rich and the poor, and the rich care nothing for the poor, who have been kept in dense ignorance and superstition for centuries. The girls are taught the intense importance of the religious life. Twenty-two years ago some missionaries from Australia going to China were told when passing the islands that the Christian Bible was not an open book there, and they prayed that the islands would be open to the gospel. One of them visiting the school told the girls of this event and taught them this little hymn:

W. S. S.

I believe God answers prayer,
I know God answers prayer,
I've proved God answers prayer,
Glory to His name."

A radio-buzzer course is to be offered by the Anaheim Union High School to conscripted men and to men who will sign a written statement that they will accept a position with the government as soon as needed. This course is being offered by high schools all over the state at the suggestion and aid of the federal government, the work being organized and supervised by the state board of education. The state board pays one-half the salary of the teacher, while the local school board pays the other half and furnishes the equipment.

On the lower Piave Austrian detachments wearing Italian uniforms sought to advance but the subterfuge was discovered and they were dispersed.

Scio is on the Leogra river east of the Asiago plateau and about eight miles behind the lines. Basalo is on the Brenta, south of Mont Grappa and about the same distance behind the lines. Asolo is on the Muzon river, eight miles east to Scio. Treviso is east of the Piave.

HAVE NOT OBTAINED SINGLE MAIN OBJECTIVE
By J. W. T. MASON
(United Press War Expert)

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Austro-Hungarians have not yet learned from Von Hindenburg the secret of his great impulse in attack, and the offensive in Italy must, consequently, for the present, be regarded as a failure.

After four days of efforts the Austro-Hungarians have not secured a single major objective. Hindenburg's new system of attack requires for its success an immediate progression of gains, which culminates at the end an extensive bend in the opposing lines. No such result has been attained by the Austro-Hungarians.

A change in tactics is necessary if Emperor Karl still hopes to gain a success which can be exploited at home to the advantage of his German overlords.

The combat has reached the old condition of slight advances at great loss of life, resulting in eventual deadlock.

With the lions, tigers and other members of the cat tribe, the night finds them at their liveliest, and they sleep most between the midday meal and supper time.

HOOVER TO STOP A. F. OF L. ELECTS HIGH COST OF HARVESTING U. S. CROPS

Profiteering of Grain Threshing Concerns Will Be Guarded Against

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Efforts to save farmers millions of dollars in threshing expenses are being made by the food administration, it was learned today.

With the harvesting beginning in the great wheat belt, reports of profiteering by threshing machine owners are reaching the food administration. Some farmers are being held up for a threshing fee of 50 cents a bushel on wheat. Threshing machinery costs and labor shortage are given as reasons. Farmers, held down by the fixed $2.20 wheat price, are unable to pass this charge along and must bear it themselves. An average increase of one cent a bushel threshing fee would cost American farmers about $10,000,000.

Hoover is organizing threshing committees in every wheat growing county which are to determine a just threshing fee. Profiteering will be guarded against. Increased fees are to be expected, however, because of the increased machinery costs and the general rising scale of prices. Threshing rates have remained practically the same as in 1911, when wheat was $1. Wheat prices have doubled since then and the threshing charge must be permitted to keep pace with the advance, officials believe.

No uniform schedule of fees can be drawn up because of varying local conditions.

Fee schedules have already been agreed upon in many sections in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa. As the season advances Minnesota, Illinois, Montana and the Dakotas will be released. Oklahoma prices range from 10 to 18 cents a bushel in some districts. Missouri's scales are from 6 to 10 cents. One Illinois district has fixed its price as low as 8 cents a bushel.

Threshing machine owners are being licensed and will be under the supervision of the threshing division of the food administration, newly created to handle the problems of harvesting.

In each county of the wheat belt the county food administrator has been asked to organize threshing committees to determine all questions of fees and harvesting on the basis of local conditions.

A. F. OF L. ELECTS OFFICERS TODAY AT CONVENTION

ST. PAUL, June 20.—Samuel Gompers was today re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor.

A resolution favoring home rule for Ireland was adopted after a move to endorse Irish independence was defeated.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 20.—Officers of the American Federation of Labor were to be elected during today's session of the convention. Minor officers were expected to cause brisk fights, but Samuel Gompers was slated for re-election to the presidency without opposition.

The convention was on record today as asking President Wilson to secure a new trial for Thomas Mooney, convicted in San Francisco of bomb plotting. Resolutions adopted late yesterday asked Governor Stephens of California to "dispel the impression that a grave miscarriage of justice is being allowed" in the Mooney case.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by Rowley Drug Co. and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Adv.

YOU PAY-USE-LESS

Don't try to save money buying cheap or big-can Baking Powders. You can't do it. You'll throw out more in spoiled bakings than you save on price of the powder. And don't think that old style high priced powders are best because they cost most. They are not.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

has proved in millions of bake-day tests that it is the best baking powder ever made—that's why it is the biggest selling baking powder in the world today. No other baking powder makes such temptingly good—tender wholesome bakings. No baking powder of anywhere near the same quality is sold at such a low price.

You use less of Calumet—because it is the highest grade baking powder. One teaspoonful is equal to two teaspoonfuls of most other brands.

And there is no "luck" about it when you use Calumet. No loss. It is absolutely sure. It is the most economical of all. Millions of housewives use it—and so do leading domestic science teachers and cooking experts.

You save when you buy it—You save when you use it. Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities.

PRESIDENT SAYS BUY U. S. S.

WAR OF NATIONS NOT OF ARMIES SAYS WILSON

Urges 100,000,000 People of America to Invest in All Securities

"This war is one of nations—not of armies—and all of our 100,000,000 people must be economically and industrially adjusted to war conditions if this nation is to play its full part in the conflict," says President Wilson, in an appeal urging the people to buy or pledge themselves to purchase War Savings Stamps.

"The problem before us is not primarily a financial problem but rather a problem of increased production of the materials and the labor necessary for the support and equipment of our army and navy. Thoughtless expenditure of money for non-essentials uses up the labor of men, the products of the farm, mines, and factories, all of which must be used to the utmost and at their best for war purposes.

"The great result which we seek can be obtained only by the participation of every member of the nation, young and old, in a national concerted thrift movement. I therefore urge that our people everywhere pledge themselves, as suggested by the secretary of the treasury, to the practice of thrift; to increase production in all fields necessary to the winning of the war; to conserve food and fuel and useful materials of every kind; to devote their labor only to the most necessary tasks; and to buy only those things which are essential to individual health and efficiency; and that the people, as evidence of their loyalty, invest all that they can save in Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamps. The securities issued by the treasury department are so many of them with in the reach of every one that the door of opportunity in this matter is wide open to all of us. To practice thrift in peace time is a virtue and brings great benefit to the individual at all times; with the desperate need of the civilized world today for materials and labor with which to end the war, the practice of individual thrift is a patriotic duty and a necessity.

"I appeal to all who now own either Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps to continue to practice economy and thrift and to appeal to all who do not own government securities to do likewise and purchase them to the extent of their means. The man who buys government securities transfers the purchasing power of his money to the United States government until after this war, and to that same degree does not buy in competition with the government.

"I earnestly appeal to every man, woman and child to pledge themselves on or before the 28th of June, to save constantly and to buy as regularly as possible the securities of the government; and to do this as far as possible through membership in War Savings Societies. The 28th of June ends this special period of enlistment in the great volunteer army of production and saving here at home. May there be none unenlisted on that day!"

CAPT. W. O. HART GOES THROUGH IN CHARGE OF TRAIN OF TROOPS

This morning about 4 o'clock a troop train with 500 drafted men in it passed through Santa Ana bound for Camp Kearny. The train was in command of Capt. W. O. Hart, now with the headquarters company at Camp Lewis. Captain Hart, who was editor of the Orange News for a number of years, has been at Camp Lewis since completing officers' training school last fall. He expects to arrive from Camp Kearny tonight, and will visit Orange for a day or two before returning to Camp Lewis.

CHINESE THREATEN STATEWIDE TONG WAR

LOS ANGELES, June 20.—A Chinese tong war, affecting all parts of the state, will be started unless criminal prosecution of four Chinese arrested on a charge of gambling is stopped, according to a notice found posted on a Chinatown shop today. The fact that three interpreters engaged to translate books found at the time of the raid have fled town is regarded as significant. The fact that a charge of burglary might be made against the arrested men is believed to have stirred the Chinatown denizens.

COUNTY WILL GO OVER TOP, SAYS MCFADDEN

Every Section In County Active or Preparing For Drive Campaign

"Orange county is going over the top in her $903,000 quota of War Savings Stamps. Every section of the county is going strong and enthusiastic men and women are either in the field securing pledges or are being organized for the drive to come next week."

This is the declaration of County Chairman John McFadden, made this morning.

Fullerton has purchased or pledged two-thirds of her quota of $100,000, with solicitors still actively engaged in the work.

Garden Grove is going strong and is within $2000 of her quota. La Habra today started on the house-to-house canvass.

Up in the oil fields the purchases and pledges today are over the per capita of $20, with prospect of increasing this considerably before June 28. Brea workers are doing fine and that community will fall into line with others that will go over the top. Tustin will likely produce more $1000 pledges than any community of like population.

At Orange the Limit Club Committee started yesterday to sign up men and women who will pledge themselves for $1000. Organization has been completed for the drive next week.

Anaheim is moving fast. A strong committee of business men started today on the organization of a Limit Club. The city has been thoroughly organized into War Savings societies, there being thirty-one societies in the city. The city's quota is $140,000. Meetings will be held every night until the campaign is over.

Huntington Beach, Newport Beach and other communities of the county are lining up for the campaign and those in charge of the activities in each of the districts expect to reach their quotas.

SCHOOLS IN CITY NEAR QUOTA IN WAR STAMPS

Average For Purchases and Pledges Is $13.23 For All Schools

Pupils of the city schools, from the first grade up to the Junior college, are within $6.77 of the per capita of $20 on which the government based its issue of $2,000,000,000 in War Savings Stamps. The total of the purchases and pledges of the pupils is $34,970.11. The total enrollment is 2719, making the average for each pupil $13.23.

The students of the high school and Junior college are 100 per cent boys and girls, for their average in purchases and pledges for War Savings Stamps is $20.85. This includes the pledges and purchases of the teachers of the two branches of the local schools. In the pledge drive last week, $12,600 was pledged and $5000 in stamps had been purchased, while in the grammar schools, the purchases and pledges totaled $17,370.11.

In the grammar schools, Intermediate leads in the per capita, which is $14.53. Jecker is second, with an average of $11.19.

Following is the total of each of the grammar schools and the average per pupil:

Washington, $1459.69; average, $7.48.
Intermediate, $6553.34; average, $14.53.
Surgeson, $2163.33; average, $10.93.
Roosevelt, $1011.05; average, $4.03.
McKinley, $1809.51; average, $6.87.
Lincoln, $1779.29; average, $6.89.
Jefferson, $2081.25; average, $11.19.
Fifth street, $512.65; average, $9.86.
By their pledges the pupils indicate that they propose saving a good portion of their earnings through the vacation. The total earnings of all the children of the schools of this city through the vacation period amounts to considerable, for every boy and girl old enough to make a hand in the apricot camps is employed from two to six weeks. Walnut picking and the canneries also offer a source of employment.

DRAFTEE OF GERMAN DESCENT PURCHASES LIMIT IN STAMPS

Henry Pohndorf, local citizen of German descent, has set an example of patriotism that is an inspiration to Americans of any blood.

The young man's parents, now dead, were both born in Germany. All of his relatives, except his two sisters, live in that country. But he is an American and is proving it.

On June 24th he leaves with the local draft contingent for Camp Kearny to train for fighting the kaiser. Tuesday he sought an Orange salesman to buy War Savings Stamps and inquired how many Thrift Stamps one person could purchase. He was informed that he could purchase $1,000 worth. "I'll take that much," he said. "I want to do everything I can."

WHAT CAPTAINS OF PRECINCTS MUST DO

Men Are Drafted to Organize Thirty Districts In City For Campaign

Following is a copy of the letter to precinct captains, advising them of their appointment, and advising them of their duties. These men are responsible for the success of the drive in their precincts, and they are empowered to call others to their assistance:

June 12, 1918.

Dear Sir:

By direction of President Wilson we are calling you to service June 25-28 in the campaign to pledge the people of this nation to the purchase of the full amount of the War Savings Stamp issue of $2,000,000,000.

This city will be canvassed by precincts and you have been assigned to precinct No. 29. It will be the duty of the team to organize the precinct and select efficient workers to solicit every resident of the precinct and get some expression from each—either a pledge or explanation why a pledge cannot be made if party does not give subscription.

This is a selling proposition and in appointing canvassers care should be exercised in selecting men or women who are energetic and competent to place the business end of the stamps before the prospect in the most convincing manner. The success of the campaign depends entirely upon the competency of the solicitors as selling agents.

The quota for Santa Ana is $300,000 which means that every man, woman and child in the city must purchase or agree to purchase to the amount of $20 each. The amount of the pledge can be purchased at any one time, or in daily, weekly or monthly installments during the balance of the year. It is an opportunity for the subscriber to buy the stamps from future earnings—cultivate the habit of saving a little something from the weekly or monthly pay check.

President Wilson has demanded that he be informed not later than the night of June 28 of the result of the national campaign—and that result must be that the nation has gone over the top. During the week every city and hamlet in the United States will be working to the one purpose—to demonstrate to the "Beast of Berlin" and his subjects that the people of the United States are back of the President in his determination to make this world safe for all peoples.

You have been drafted for this work—you have no alternative. The work must be done and you are to be held responsible for the success of the drive in your precinct. Get busy at once and formulate your plans—get in mind the names of the men and women you will ask to assist you. Put aside all other engagements. Remember at this time the nation's welfare takes precedence over all personal matters, whether pleasure or business.

Be with us, and when the final returns are given, let it be said that every resident of your precinct did his bit in assisting the government to finance this war.

Believing that you are deeply concerned in the success of this drive and anticipating the pleasure of meeting you in person at the meeting Monday night, we remain,

Yours, W. S. S.

HORACE FINE, Drive Chairman.

JOHN MCFADDEN, County Chairman.

F. L. ANDREWS, City Chairman.

SMOTHER KAISER WITH WAR SAVINGS STAMPS SHOULD BE SLOGAN

Sacred treaties are called by the kaiser mere "scraps of paper." His words are an example of the "Kultur" of the Hun who commit unspeakable crimes against innocent women and children—the "Kultur" that Americanism is fighting to remove forever from the world. America is in this fight to win—the soldiers must "carry on"—those at home must back up the boys to the limit. Smother the kaiser with War Savings Stamps and show him that they are the "scraps of paper" that will help win the war.

—W. S. S.—

A BABY BOND IN EVERY HOME IN SANTA ANA

Pledge For Every Family Is Hope of City Chairman

A "baby bond" in every home—this is the hope of the local War Savings Stamp city chairman, F. L. Andrews. The drive next Tuesday and Wednesday in the residence districts and Thursday in the business section is expected to result in putting this city over its quota of War Savings Stamps. If this is done, it will end the work for this year. If it is not done, another drive will have to be arranged before the year expires. The city has got to meet its quota or be classed as a slacker, and Santa Ana has not as yet been classed as such in any of the campaigns for war financing.

The Limit Club membership is growing daily. This is composed of men or women who will pledge themselves to purchase $1000 worth of stamps before the 31st of December, 1918, and those who want the honor of being identified with the club should see the Limit Club committee at once. George S. Smith is chairman and the other members are John Cubbon and Fred Fuller. It is the desire of the committee working on the Limit Club and the $500 Club to have this work closed up before the drive starts.

The precinct captains, who will be responsible for the drive in their precincts, are getting active in organization of their districts and are calling upon many people to assist them in the canvass. They are dividing their precincts into small districts so that it will not take much of any individual's time to canvass his or her territory.

The main drive is to be made on Tuesday, with follow-up work on Wednesday. Everything should be cleaned up by Wednesday night, so as to give a clear field for the drive in the business section on Thursday. County Chairman McFadden and City Chairman Andrews must know the complete total of pledges in the city by Friday night, so that the result can be telegraphed to the state chairman and passed along the line until it reaches President Wilson. President Wilson is urging the entire nation to get back of the issue and see that it is pledged by June 28. It is the money that is saved from future earnings that has the most value, and the War Savings plan was developed especially for the purpose of giving wage earners an opportunity to assist the government in war financing by pledging a portion of their future earnings.

Active men and women—busy people—will give their time to the soliciting of pledges. Every family should decide what it wants to pledge and the party who greets the solicitors at the door on the days of the drive should be in position to say without hesitation just what the family will pledge. If all are prepared to give a definite answer, it will save time for the solicitors and make their work much easier.

The $2,000,000,000 War Savings Stamp issue will pay for all the ships built in 1918, and everyone knows the importance of providing additional tonnage to carry soldiers and supplies across the waters.

Register Editor Pledges

That J. P. Baumgartner, editor of the Register, is keeping in close touch with activities here during his absence in the east, is evidenced by the following telegram received this morning by John McFadden, county chairman of the War Savings Stamp Committee:

Columbia, Mo., June 19, 1918.

John McFadden, County Chairman, Santa Ana:

Note with pleasure through Register progress of War Savings Stamp campaign. You may enter our subscription for $500, payable in installments at Register office. Would like to make larger subscription, but we purchased considerable amounts before leaving home, and also feel compelled to subscribe here to all war funds and loans.

(Signed) MR. AND MRS. J. P. BAUMGARTNER.

DAILY SAVINGS POINT TO WAR STAMPS

Wealth Created By Saving Is Worth More to the Government

A subscription to the purchase of War Savings Stamps, which is based on daily savings, daily created, is worth at least twice as much to the country as one that is based on bank credit or on sales of securities. The man who has borrowed money from the bank has simply promised to contribute to the Liberty loan. The actual contribution comes when he pays for it. The man who sells stocks or bonds in order to contribute to the Liberty loan is merely converting one kind of property into another. It makes it a little easier for the government to raise capital, and a little harder for corporations whose work may be almost as essential to the safety of the country as that of the government itself. The man who buys War Savings Stamps, but does not pay for them out of savings, contributes little to the government, says the Riverside Press.

Helps in Real Costs

But the man who has earned his money to subscribe to the Liberty loan, or who has saved his money to put into War Savings Stamps, has helped to meet the real cost of the war, because he has actually created that much new money by his efforts. If he has increased his earnings in order to subscribe, he has furnished the country some of the labor power it needs. If he and his household have diminished their consumption in order to subscribe, they have saved the country are battling with their rifles. The surplus of a worker's earnings over a worker's consumption represents an actual net income available for war purposes. This is why it is even more important to have a loan widely distributed among the people than to have it taken up by large corporations. It means that we are doing what we pretend to do; paying the real cost as well as the money cost of war finance.

For Rich and Poor

No citizen, rich or poor, laborer, artisan or capitalist, can afford to ignore the call of the War Savings Stamp. It involves the stability of the government itself, for on the winning of the war depends the life or death of the republic. The war cannot be won by a passive public, for that kind of a public would soon let the soldiers languish on the field without supplies or ammunition. It must be won by a fighting public, fighting as valiantly and as faithfully with the sinews of war as the heroes of the country are battling with their rifles in France. Every dollar is a silver bullet and every dollar invested in a War Savings Stamp, out of the labor of today, is a brand new dollar added to the wealth of the nation, just as much as if it was mined right out of the earth and handed bright and new to the government.

That is the dollar the government needs and must have in this great struggle of humanity against the Beast of Berlin. That is the kind of a dollar that was sought by President Wilson when he declared that two billions of new wealth should be created by the people themselves, and subscribed by the people themselves, for the use of the government in the prosecution of the war.

The $2,000,000,000 War Savings Stamp issue will pay for all the ships built in 1918, and everyone knows the importance of providing additional tonnage to carry soldiers and supplies across the waters.

GOVERNOR URGES INVESTMENT IN BABY BONDS

All Should Make Sacrifices and Put Savings In Government Securities

State-wide observance of National War Savings Day, June 28, by encouraging investment in War Savings Stamps is urged upon the people of California in a proclamation by Governor William D. Stephens, as follows:

"One of the most important phases of individual work toward winning the war is saving of the securities of the United States money and the investment of it in the securities of the United States.

"At this time we should encourage the purchase of War Savings Stamps. By this means an avenue of saving is thrown open to every individual. Those whose means do not permit of large savings can, nevertheless, by depriving themselves in a very small degree, invest in War Savings Stamps, and by so doing they will be of direct assistance and benefit to the nation.

"The National War Savings Committee, through its sub-committees in the various states, is organizing War Savings societies to encourage the habit of thrift and small savings. June 28 has been set aside by the President as National War Savings Day in order to emphasize the importance of the work which is being done. The people of California are expected by the nation to save and invest in War Stamps to the value at maturity of $1,345,980. We have responded nobly to the various calls made by the Government for the Liberty Loan. Our Red Cross memberships and subscriptions have been so great that we are very proud of our record. Let us be equally successful in our war Savings campaign.

"To assure that result, I urge all persons to become members of the War Savings societies, to encourage by all possible means investment in War Savings Stamps and to join with their respective War Savings committees in celebrating National War Savings Day."

CORPORAL E. L. TERRY WRITES MOTHER FROM FRANCE

The following letter has been received from "over there" from Corporal E. L. Terry of Paulino, of the cavalry, by his mother, Mrs. I. B. Terry:

"We arrived O. K. and were eleven days on sea during our trip and would have had a nice trip on sea but for the rain; it rained nearly every day we were out. Occasionally the wind would get under a nice big spray and blow it up on deck and give every one a real salt water bath. I didn't get at all seasick, very much to my surprise and gratification.

"This is a beautiful country, very nearly level, the part I have seen. The raising of grapes and making of wine seems to be the principal industry, and every one drinks it here, men and women.

"The most noticeable thing of the country is that all the houses are built of stone or brick and mortar. I don't think I have seen a frame building since we landed. American style buggies seem to be unknown here, nothing but a clumsy two-wheel affair, seating two or four people. I was very much surprised that the country is not more modern in improvements, but the people are the most hospitable I have ever been among.

"Politeness here is worth more to one than money. I am well and well cared for, so don't worry about me. We are getting everything we need."

—W. S. S.—

EXETER APRICOT CROP EXETER, June 20.—Apricots in the Exeter district this year promise to make 20 to 30 per cent more than a normal crop. As far as can be told at this time, the quality of the fruit will be very high. Extensive additions are being made to local canneries to take care of the coming production.

RACES OF WORLD ARE WELDED TOGETHER IN WAR

Americans, British, French,
Italians Are Together;
German Miles Away

BY FRED S. FERGUSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN PICARDY May 20.—(By Mail).—An English dog leaped from a British officer's automobile to chase a French
cat. The cat headed across the street and nearly gave up one of its lives
beneath an American officer's automobile. An Italian soldier cheered the cat as it sped for a wall. A black African colonel nearby shouted encouragement to the dog. A Belgian took after the dog to restore him to his officer master, but as the cat disappeared over the wall an Australian finally collared the dog.

This mixture of nationalities in connection with such a simple incident as a dog-and-cat fight was in a certain French town. As the Italians, Belgians, Africans, Australians and French civilians and soldiers scattered after the flurry, American trucks, American ambulances, American motorcycles—all bearing American men—hurried through the crowded street.

Now Come Americans
The fighting men from all corners of the earth except America had been in this region for two, three or four years. Now, as the automobiles whizzed through the streets, they were bringing American fighting men and fighting material.

Representatives of the nations of the world were drawn together here in a common cause, and involved in a little incident of everyday life, as simple as a dog-and-cat fight. But as Americans had a part in this little incident, so are Americans destined to play their part in the world at large hereafter, through their contact with the men of other nations fighting on the battle lines.

As America's fighting forces gradually extend their zones of operation, it is this inevitable mingling of nations that is constantly in the foreground. The American is learning French habits and customs. The Frenchman is learning American ways. The Britisher and American have much in common, and they are finding more. The American is new at the fighting game, but he has the greatest admiration for the dash and efficiency of the Frenchman and the dogged determination of the Britisher.

Have Common Cause
The men of the Allied armies are fighting for a common principle, but they are doing more than fight together. They are finding common sympathies. Officers and men are making friendships with other officers and men of whose existence they did not even know a year ago. These friendships will not be broken soon.
While Germany is seeking to dismember the rest of the world by propaganda, it is slowly but surely being welded closer and closer together by the contact of men of all nations. Statesmen of one nation may find common ground of discussion and understanding with other statesmen. Generals, leading their armies in a common cause, may reach agreements for strategical reasons, but the man in the ranks and the under-officers of all the armies, will carry with them the real sympathy and understanding of the men of other nations with whom he fought.

This will be carried back home by the men who return. It will be spread through the nations.

And the nearest German to this dog-
and-cat fight, that occurred in a certain French town, was some miles away, with barbed wire, trenches, bayonets and cannon between.

E. E. SPAULDING HAS SPLENDID CLUSTER OF 16 LEMONS

Mesa Is Proud of Fine Specimen; Many Farm Topics
Are Discussed

The Fairview Farms Association held an interesting meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Donald Dodge.

A proposition was put before the company to raise cabbage for the season 1918-19. This was discussed from every angle and everyone felt he had learned something new about cabbage
and the marketing possibilities.

Dr. Wherry led a discussion on the planting of blackeye beans, bringing out various experiences as to the kind and condition of seed used. Most planters found they had as good result from seed taken from the thresher as from hand selected seed. Mr.
Dodge suggested that by next season
some effort be made whereby all seed could be tested as to germination qualities. George Hall testified he had planted some carefully picked seed and got half a stand. Not having enough, he bought seed which he said contained splits and quantities of adobe and he thought it all grew.

H. B. Woodruff gave a talk on the Thrift Stamp drive that is now on and said it was an excellent way to teach the children to save.

Cluster of Lemons
E. A. Spaulding brought with him a cluster of lemons of which he is justly proud. In this group there are sixteen perfectly shaped lemons, all being ring size but one, which is a mere trifle under, and of uniform color, one only ready to pick. There were in this cluster originally nineteen lemons, three being picked at recent pickings.

Fairview Farms are also proud of this exhibit as at a recent visit of the association to Whittier they were shown a cluster of twelve ring sized lemons, which those experienced growers thought was quite a wonder, and moreover on the frontispiece of the May issue of "The California Citrograph" a picture was reproduced of a cluster of lemons from a San Fernando Valley grove containing only eight in the cluster.

Mr. Spaulding's trees were planted in the spring of 1914. The lemon growers of the district are indeed pleased with the showing of a bright future for the mesa in the citrus growing industry.

DANGERS OF COSTIVENESS

Auto-intoxication, headache, lassitude, irritability, "blues," sallowness, blootches, are among the results of constipation. If long neglected it may cause piles, ulceration of bowels, appendicitis, nervous prostration, paralysis. Don't delay treatment. Best remedy is Foley Cathartic Tablets, as many thousands know from experience. They not only do their work surely, easily, gently, but without injury to stomach or intestinal lining.
Contain no habit-forming element.

MANY little children like this one have been placed in good homes by the Children's Home Society of California, a work which will be aided by the sale of little red hearts in Santa Ana on Saturday.

"HAVE A HEART," SAVE A CHILD

"Heart Day" is fast approaching. It will be here on Saturday and on that day
nobody should be heartless.

The little red cardboard
tags with their entreaty,
"Have a Heart and Help a Child to Find a Home," should carry a note of appeal to everyone. It is not possible for each person in a community to adopt an orphan child, but each person may help somebody else to do it and thus be a Godmother or Godfather by proxy.

Mrs. Mildred B. Kennedy,
one of the field representatives of the Children's Home Society of California, has been in Santa Ana during this week making arrangements for "Heart Day" and she is enthusiastic over the responsive co-operation of the local committee. Every county in the state has benefited by the work of the society and so the homeless children of California beg attention and urge a sympathetic contribution in the Red Heart Saturday. Boys and girls are needed by the society for adoption from tiny infants to 14 years of age without regard to color, creed, or nationality. The work is non-sectarian and supported by the voluntary gifts of the people entirely.

AMERICA'S WAR SAVINGS DAY. MUST BE MADE A BIG SUCCESS

The National War Savings Committee, which is carrying on, through its state and local committees, a nationwide campaign to get all the people on or before June 28 to pledge themselves to save to the utmost of their ability and to buy War Savings Stamps with their savings, has given out the following statement:

"Those of us who remain at home while others do the fighting have an ever-increasing number of opportunities to do definite and highly important work for our country. We wish to do this work as an expression of the gratitude we feel in being privileged to continue at our usual tasks, to enjoy the loving companionship of our families, to meet freely with our friends and neighbors, to enjoy all the security of life and most of the pleasures and the economic privileges of peace times while other men, who have had to put aside all these things, are fighting our battles for us on the sacred soil of France and on the high seas.

"Our new opportunity to serve comes as a result of designating June 28 as National War Savings Day, a day on which all men and women and all children of sufficient years to appreciate the day's significance are called upon to pledge themselves to save to the utmost of their ability and to conserve all possible labor and materials for the Government, and to buy War Savings Stamps with their savings.
Our part is to do everything possible to make this day stand out among the great days of this period of the war.
"Could any one of us be asked to do less than this? Could any one of us refuse to do so little a thing to win a war for the world's freedom? Could any one of us put aside this plea for saving while all Europe is crying out in its agony to be released from the clutches of the monster that is befouling all it touches? Could we refuse so simple a thing and at the same time ask other men to give their lives

that our own precious lives be spared and our firesides be kept safe from the terrors of the Hun?

"Our duty is clear, our privilege is great, our sacrifice is little, our work is important.

"National War Savings Day is to be the great rallying day on which everyone in our country is expected to pledge himself or herself to save and economize. This saving and economizing will first of all leave in the markets a greater supply of labor and materials for the use of the Government with which to fight the war. And then the money savings of the individuals are to be invested in War Savings Stamps.

"What the Government asks us to do is to pledge ourselves to buy at definite periods with our savings a specific amount of War Savings Stamps. The thing to be accomplished is to get subscriptions which will take care during the balance of the present year of the unsold portion of the $2,000,000,000 of War Savings Stamps authorized by the Congress to be sold during 1918.

"When one stops to think of the matter, it is really a small thing to raise $2,000,000,000 in a country of more than 100,000,000 people. If everyone would do his share, it would be necessary for each person to subscribe to only $2 worth of stamps.

"The duty of us at home is to see to it that the entire amount is subscribed. We must work to that end.
We must add to our already great army of war savers. We must make more sacrifices ourselves and urge sacrifices upon others. National War Savings Day MUST BE made the great success all of us hope for."

RE-ELECT MRS. CURL PRINCIPAL OF THE TALBERT SCHOOL

Miss Mildred Moody to Teach Primary Room; Junior
Red Cross Meeting

TALBERT, June 20.—The teachers for the coming year at the Talbert school have been engaged by the trustees. Mrs. Maude Curl of Los Angeles, who was principal of the school the past year, has been re-elected, and Miss Mildred Moody of Huntington Beach has been accepted for the primary room of which Miss Zylpha Dismukes of Santa Ana was teacher last term.

Sewing for Red Cross
The first Junior Red Cross meeting since the close of school was held on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. F. Swift, with fourteen ladies present, who spent the afternoon profitably in cutting out and making garments, several of which were completed. Forty-one yards of material was cut into garments and those not finished at the meeting were taken by the ladies for home work. A pleasant surprise was in store for the busy company, the hostess treating to delicious ice cream and cake previous to the hour of departure.

No definite day has been set for the next meeting as it was decided best to have a called meeting when the work runs short, but it is thought that it can be held in about two weeks.

Following the purchase of the materials now on hand the treasury was in a badly depleted condition, but during the last few days six dollars has been donated to the cause, bringing the unused amount up to $10.80.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Talbert entertained the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pettitt of San Pedro, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Pettitt, who were until recently of Whittier, moved to San Pedro about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Fleishman of Huntington Beach returned home last week following a week's visit with Mrs. Sarah Warner.

Mrs. Andrews and son Billy, who have been with her son, Rev. Andrews and family, at the parsonage since arriving from Imperial, left Saturday for Long Beach, their former home, to spend a week. Miss Annie Andrews also accompanied them.

Miss Grace Malan returned Friday from Perris with her uncle, F. D. Plavan, with relatives about Perris.

Take Government Land

Will Kozina and sisters, Misses Annie and Dorothy, left last Monday for Utah to spend the coming year on their government claim there. The land was taken by John Kozina, who remained on it until called into the army, since which time his father has been on it. The young people are going out to assist Mr. Kozina in the harvest. John Kozina is still in an army cantonment but expects to leave for overseas soon.

Ernest Plavan arrived Saturday from Perris for a visit at home, and upon his return Monday was accompanied by Leland Plavan, who will remain at the ranch for the summer.

Mrs. Robt. Wardlow took sick the first of the week and was ill in bed at the last report, Tuesday.

Billie Hill and Floyd Umunthauffer spent the day Sunday with Frank Harper. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Tim Downing and son Clyde of Orange were also guests at the Harper home.

Scouts Plan Mountain Camp
The Silver Fox Club of Y. M. C. A. boys of Talbert find little else to be of interest these days while planning with their scout master, Rev. J. Alvah Andrews, for a mountain trip in the near future. They expect to go soon after the 4th and plan to spend several days camping in Wolfskill canyon.

Soon Leave for France
Mrs. J. H. Cox received a letter the past week from her son-in-law, Frank Edmunds, who is in an army camp in Massachusetts. He is in fine health and stated that all clothing of his company is receiving identification marks preparatory to the departure for over there, which they expect to take soon.

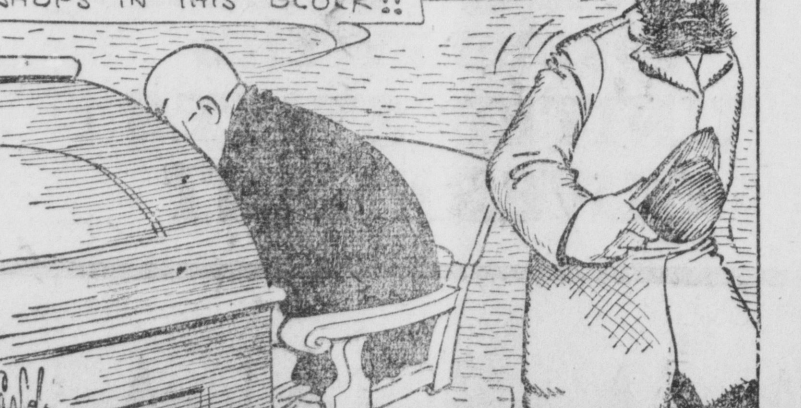

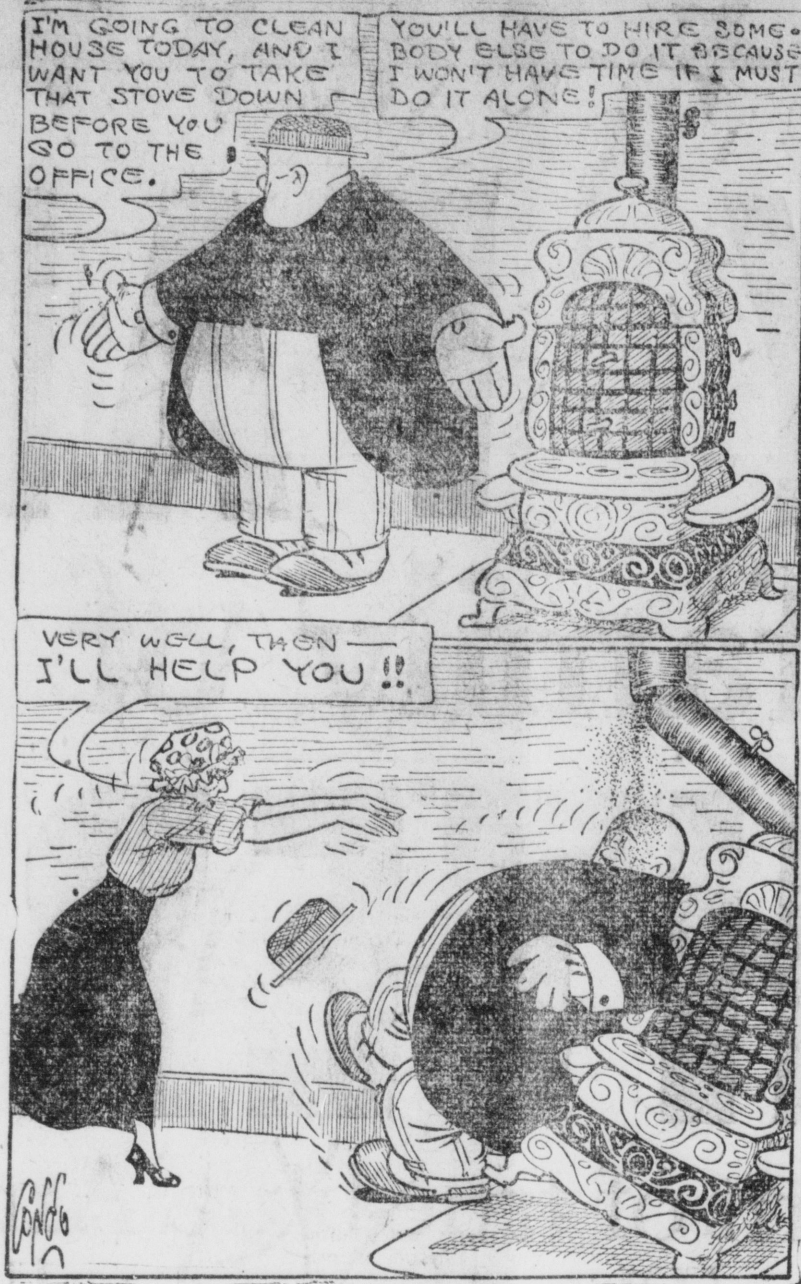

Baby Registration
Registration of babies in the Talbert district will take place next Saturday, June 22, at Parson's store. J. G. Parsons was appointed to make arrangements and he has appointed Mrs. A. F. Swift, Mrs. Sam Talbert and Rev. J. Alvah Andrews as his assistants. All mothers are asked to bring their children six years of age or under to the store for registration on Saturday.

RED CROSS PROFITS BY ENTERTAINMENT AT WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, June 19.—The Queen Esther entertainment given at Wintersburg for the benefit of the Red Cross was repeated with great success at Westminster on Friday night, to a well-filled house.

The "Star-Spangled Banner," sung with tableau of Goddess of Liberty having a sailor at her right hand and soldier at her left, with lights on stage only, was very pretty, as was also the knitting song by all the Queen Esther girls who knitted while they sang. President Wilson's Flag Day speech was well rendered by Miss Eva Murray.

The two plays, "The Burglar" and "The Carpet Bee," were well carried out and were much applauded, as were the readings by Misses Ethel Graham and Ethel Gothard, both replying to encores.

The piano duet by Miss Eunice Stockton and Miss Viola Walton, and the piano solo by Miss Stockton were also very much appreciated.

The total receipts of the evening amounted to nearly $55, of which $31.70 was received at the door. This was equally divided between Westminster and Wintersburg, and $23.20 was the amount received from sale of ice cream and cake, donated by Westminster Red Cross members, of which one-fourth went to Wintersburg. Westminster's share of the evenings proceeds was $33.25, which will be used in Red Cross work. All seemed well satisfied with the results.

ALMIND WRITES OF FRENCH WAR-TIME FARM METHODS

WINTERSBURG, June 20.—A letter written May 22 by Clayton Almind "somewhere in France," was received by W. G. Alford last Saturday. The writer was well and seemed to be enjoying life as usual, judging from the tone of the letter. There was no news he could tell, he said, but gave his father some interesting notes on the contrast of French and local farming.

"There are no large farms in France," he said, "but every foot is made to yield to the best advantage and the farmers are strong on thorough fertilization of the soil. In plowing, as a general rule, when horses are used, they are led instead of driven and, as a usual sight to see oxen used in the fields, these being driven with a pointed stick and a succession of yells from the driver. Each farm is enclosed by a row of hedges. The old women are mostly caring for the cows, as feed is precious they spend their time out on the hills grazing them and either take their knitting with them to employ the time or else dig dandelion roots."

"Have only seen one pig since I came over," the writer said, "and that was in perfect darkness in an enclosure six by eight feet. Who would want to be a pig in France? The country is pretty and green now and flowers plentiful, much like California, but I haven't time to look at them."

Since leaving the United States early in the year, Almind had received but one letter from home, although the family has written him at least once each week. He has been on a continual move so hoped as the one had reached him that the remainder of his mail would catch up with him soon.

YUCAIPA POTATOES
YUCAIPA, June 20.—A larger acreage of potatoes has been planted in the valley this year than ever before. Much of it has been intercropped between the rows of young apple trees, although the amount of land given over entirely to the crop is large. The growers who have planted between the trees are having exceptional success. E. E. Chinn, a grower on the South Bench, has fifty acres planted to potatoes, twenty acres in one piece and the remainder between the apple trees. He expects a much larger crop this year than last, when he had the largest yield of the valley. Mr. Chinn now has 1000 sacks of seed potatoes in cold storage which he will use for the fall planting. So many growers lost their fall crops last year because they did not have proper seed potatoes. The orchards do not suffer from the intercropping for the trees have put out the heaviest bloom yet this season. The apple crop is expected to be more than double that of last year and to take care of it an organization is now being formed.
